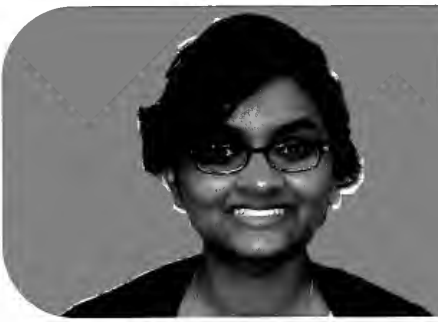
Take a look...



"What does it mean to be a Scottie? Of course all students of Agnes Scott are Scotties, but I feel it takes a special type of woman to come to this school. She would be strong in spirit and motivated to make life for others as well as herself better. She would not be the type to let life pass her by. She's active and determined to succeed in every endeavor."

Bhumika Patel '12

"A Scottie is what I've always wanted my daughters to be-incredibly intelligent young women who transition into confident, socially aware leaders likely to make a great impact on their communities. After 16 years of Scotties I continue to be amazed by our remarkable students."

Misty Dumas- Patterson
Career Planning

"Being a Scottie is being a sister, having fun, and getting stuff done. It's figuring out who we are before we have to be that person in the 'real world.'"

Megan McCulloch '13

"Being a Scottie means that I am apart of a select group of women that understands the trials of balancing academics with Black Cat commitments, being a member of the Black Ring Mafia, and the joy of having an undefeated football team."

Itohowo Ekanemesang '07

The Scottie

"A Scottie engages this world with an intense desire to transform it and be transformed by it. Scotties are a beautiful tapestry of hope."

Marisela Martinez
Intercultural Affairs

"A Scottie is a cool, together sister."

Dr. Lock Rogers
Assistant Professor of Biology

"To me being a Scottie means being part of an amazing community of women, who strive to be intelligent, engaged, compassionate, and curious citizens of the world. In short, it means I have found my tribe."

Kimberly B. Reeves '10

Words from the Editor-in-Chief of Silhouette:

"Being a Scottie is a unique experience that I am blessed to have. Here at Agnes, we are given the opportunity to learn from a diverse group of women as well as discover more about ourselves. Being Editor-in-Chief of Silhouette is an overwhelming yet fulfilling experience that has definitely shaped how I view myself as a Scottie. This school year the Silhouette Staff and I have dedicated this publication to hear your unique Agnes experiences and to discover what being a Scottie means to you, because we are more than just fiesty; we are a diverse, phenomenal force to be reckoned with!"

Black Cat

Spirit Week!

The 2009 Black Cat was, as always, a dramatic week for Scotties who love to party and study at the same time. From the first years fight to keep their mascot a secret, to the sophomores new mascot dilemma, to the ongoing struggle of making our precious week "family-friendly", Black Cat never fails to excite and inspire school pride. So, just in case missed you all the action, here is a sum up of one of our most beloved Scottie traditions:

2013 Valkyries

This year , we welcomed the Valkyries of 2013. Also, in the fashion of the departing Phoenixes, the class of 2012 bid farewell to the Buccaneers and experienced a rebirth in the form of the Water Dragons.

Party Days

The Black Cat dinning experience started off with the Amazons who created a Harry Potter party in Evans and featured Rock Band! On Tuesday the First Years showed a lot of creativity with a Toga themed party which included a live band and free togas! The sophomores based their party day on their new mascot with Asian inspired food and music. And the Seniors gave a final salute to Agnes with a Firehouse themed party, with a pie eating contest and a raffle!

DAY

Bonfire 2009

The Phoenixes rise out of the fire one last time. The Amazons remained fierce like true warriors. The sophomores premiered their new mascot the Water Dragons with flare. The talented first years joined our tradition as the Valkyries with a golden spirit.

Junior Production

Class Dances

Class Songs

JP 2009 proved to be a hit! The night started with a bang of class songs and dances. The fiery Phoenixes strutted their stuff with their rendition of Beyonce's "Diva" remixed, the mighty Amazons thrilled the crowd with their dance, including an appearance by Michael Jackson (aka ChaQuanna Dunton), the brave Blue Dragons showed what their made of with their dance in the form of "America's Best Dance Crew," and the newcomers, the fierce Valkyries, blew everyone away with their creative and captivating rendition of "Yellow Submarine," uniting the Yellow and Green classes.

And then the main event began. The Amazons' production kept the audience on their toes, from the swine flu dance to the special appearance of Kanye West. Written by Dani Herd and Julie Reynolds, the production followed Ramona, a stressed-out Junior questioning her place in the ASC community portrayed by Madeline Paschen, and her new-found friends. There's the ever-excited first-year Julia as portrayed by Julie Reynolds, the anti-social sophomore Becky as portrayed by Trisha Jackson, and Roberta, a senior with no job prospects, as portrayed by Chelsea Buckley. In the end, the women of the Agnes Scott community rally together to show Ramona that Agnes is the place for her and she ultimately decides to stay.

Agnes Scott News

getting the message across...

Agnes Scott College is the first college in Georgia to compost in its residence halls. While a few Georgia colleges and universities compost in their dining halls, Agnes Scott has extended its composting to a pilot program in its residence halls and campus center, which has a snack bar and café.

Agnes Scott College ranks second among liberal arts colleges in the "Top Up-and-Coming Schools" in the U.S.News & World Report's just-released 2010 edition of "America's Best Colleges." It is the only women's college recognized in this category.

What do you have to say ?

"Very Beneficial but still confusing on Dos and Don'ts"
Shauntia Lovett

"So proud that Agnes is getting some recognition."
Madelynn Martinière

Working at Agnes...

brings the idea of community full circle! Scotties are working hard, not only for their education, but for the betterment of our Campus. Here are just a few ways in which Scotties are helping our ASC environment...

Lathasia Collins

Class of 2011
Lathasia works as a receptionist for ResLife preparing paperwork for meetings and answering calls from parents concerning their children.
What she loves about her job? Talking to international students' parents!
Looking to switch jobs? Check out ResLife! It's a relaxed setting, plus Joy and Kijua are great to chill with!

Lintonia Davis

Class of 2011
Lintonia works in the Arts Store (Yes, we have one of those!) in Dana Fine Arts Building, she sells art supplies to students and helps them find art supplies for their pieces.
What she loves about her job? Helping you of course! She likes helping you with your artwork and getting to work on her own pieces during downtime.
Looking for a job? You may want to look into the art department. They're cool, it's laid back, and the people there are really personable!

Siobhan Keeve

Class of 2012
Siobhan works as a receptionist at Alston Info Desk answering phone calls, ushering events on campus, and answering people's questions that stop by the desk. What she loves about her job? Meeting new people!

What did you think about that?

The H1N1 virus, also known 'swine flu' spread quickly across the globe from its first recorded outbreak in April 2009 in Mexico. The virus can be transferred from one person to another like the common flu; however, the death rates for swine flu is much more serious. Nearly 6,000 deaths have been recorded as of October. The World Heath Organization declared it a pandemic on June 11th 2009.

With the new presidency came new concerns about health care and insurance. Should the government provide for us or should health care remain as it has always been? The answer is very complicated and our ever straining economy does not seem to helping matters at all. Will the debate of health care be decided by year 2010? One can only hope.

After a long week of tests, impromptu essay assignments and exams, we Scotties need a break from all of it. And what place could be better for replenishing that youthful spirit than Atlanta? Whether by car, bus, or MARTA, students are trekking around the city to enjoy life and forget their homework woes, if only for a weekend....

Scotties
Making a Difference

Every year, an impressive number of Scotties venture away from the beautiful campus of Agnes Scott with the intention of bettering the greater Atlanta area.

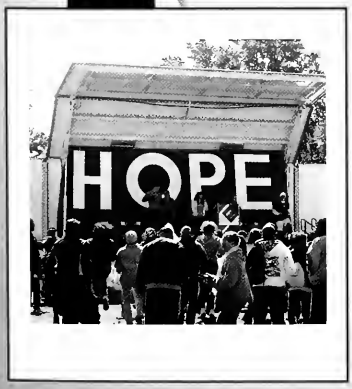
Christin Weeks - President of Habitat for Humanity

Q: What inspired you to get involved with Habitat For Humanity?

A: ...The homeowners are an active part of the home-making process, so you know that the final product will be treasured and well-cared for...To me, just the gesture of a group of people coming together to assist one another in a time of need is so valuable.

Q:How did you come to be president of Habitat For Humanity at such an early time in your college career?

A:It was kind of thrust upon me. The previous president graduated without leaving a successor, so she asked me to step up because she knew I loved Habitat.



Global Scotties

Agnes Scott students are making their voices heard not only around Atlanta, but all over the world.

Going abroad was great because I wanted to learn more about Spanish culture and strengthen my language skills but I learned much more. I learned about what it meant to be an American to me and how well I can adapt. I went abroad alone and gained some of the most amazing friendships and realized that I want that trip to be only the beginning of many more abroad experiences. I think no matter where you go or what you go for you will learn much more than you would ever expect. I never would have thought I could survive an entire semester of classes in Spanish and pass and I did.

Going to Australia was the most amazing experience of my whole life! I got to experience a new culture, make friends from all around the world, visit places like the Sydney Opera House which I've wanted to see since I was a little girl, and I saw real live kangaroos in the wild! I took classes about Australia specifically, learning about their history, their culture, their literature and their environment, all of which were very interesting to me. Through this experience I have gained a new perspective of the world from outside of my own country and I think I have grown as a person because of it. Studying abroad in Australia was the best choice I ever made!

I went to Chengdu, China in Spring 09 and it was one of the best times of my life! I met many interesting people from China and many other countries as well as having some of the best food in existence. My favorite moment was when (after climbing sacred Buddhist mountain Emei for 2 days) I got to see the sunrise above the sea of clouds at 10,167 feet. I was hesitant to go at first, but now I wouldn't trade my time there for anything.

The Office of International Education

What are the different types of programs that a Scottie can use to Study Abroad?

"There is ISEP, CIEE, Summer Programs, etc...Our office can help students in this process by determining which program best fits what the student is looking for. There are programs designed for every type of experience: homestay options, volunteering, internships, theme focused programs on topics like sustainability, development, public health, literature, etc. There are programs where you take classes and do field research or volunteering, there are programs that involve travel to multiple countries. The possibilities are endless! "

Liliane Spenle', International Education Advisor

Traveling abroad is a great way to access a global education!

Helen Tzow

Class of 2010 (Ghana- Fall '08)

I still can't believe it has been a year since I have studied abroad. Being in Ghana was a great experience. I loved learning all about their culture, trying their foods, learning the Twi language, and attending classes at the University of Ghana. I learned to be extremely independent and came to appreciate all the little things. Studying abroad with ISEP was so much fun. We traveled all over Ghana and even to Togo and Benin. My entire study abroad experience helped me realize what I wanted to do after graduation, which is to work abroad and be a Peace Corps volunteer.

Emily Walters

Class of 2010 (Senegal - Spring '09)

Spending a semester in Senegal was the adventure of a lifetime. I had the opportunity to live with a Senegalese family for four months, travel all over the country, and challenge myself in ways I never thought possible. Mostly importantly, my semester abroad was a huge confidence booster: after spending three days crossing the border between Senegal and Guinea in the back of a truck, I know I can do anything!

Sami Corvino

Class of 2010 (France - Fall '08 Spring '09)

From the canals of Venice to the Schönbrunn Palace in Vienna, every day was an adventure and a learning experience. It opened my eyes to the world around me as well as helped me learn things about myself. My time abroad was something that will never be forgotten.

A Scottie who studies abroad becomes...

"...open-minded, questioning, easy-going, bold, and resilient."

What are the advantages of studying abroad?

More and more research verifies the benefits of studying abroad. Academics have found returned study abroad students to be more serious, more analytical and more creative in their coursework in their remaining college years after studying abroad. Study abroad students also tend to engage in more service and community activities than their classmates who have not studied abroad. Employers have preferences for students with international experiences. Besides professional and academic benefits, students gain so many invaluable life skills that are not always demanded of students on campus, simply because of the independent nature of study abroad.

Judicial Board

J-Board is the governing body for the residence halls. The board strives to ensure students live a safe, comfortable environment.

Brittany Manning, President (2010)
Capricia Jeffers, Vice President (2011)
Jia Yu, Treasurer (2011)
Precious Acker, Secretary (2011)
Jenee Gaskin and Carieta Thomas (2010 Representatives)
Gianna Barnett and Ashley McCook (2011 Representatives)
Lauren Albin and Haviland Forrister (2012 Representative
Ambria Turner and Allyson Brannon (201 Representatives)

J-Board investigates cases sent to them by Residence Life. If necessary, the board will hear the case and then vote on it based off of policies found in the student handbook. Do not be intimidated by J-Board members! They are your peers so they are very approachable. They have your best interest at heart when judging your cases!

A Scottie, as defined by your J-Board Representatives is:
"A woman that is an honorable person that is responsible for her actions. She takes personal responsibility for the things she does and how her actions affect others."

Mission statement:

"Student Advocates for Educating Women (S.A.F.E. Women) strive to be active in the campus community to promote health education in the form of inspirational, accessible programs pertinent to the contemporary college woman in all of her forms."

How has the club changed or contributed to the ASC campus?

"We have strived to promote dialogue and accurate health information on often stigmatized health topics."

" Being a Scottie means being in charge of your body by making well-educated decisions. Scotties are aware of their bodies, knowledgeable and yet open-minded to different points of view. "

The Office of International Affairs

Ambassadors

The Ambassadors: Alexandra Brewer, Brittany Broomfield, Jordan Casteel, T'Aira Duncan, Naseem Ghannad, Carolina Patino, and Calista Ross.

Mission: "The Office of Intercultural Affairs Ambassadors empowers the Agnes Scott College community by fostering and advocating for social justice through facilitation of dialogue in a safe and open forum. The Ambassadors promote awareness, consciousness, and engagement in order to cultivate respect, understanding, and inclusivity." ~ Ross

How are the Ambassadors affecting change on campus?

Casteel: "We participated in the ASC 101 rotations, guiding discussions about trigger points, their origins, and facilitating an activity called "game of life". During diversifest, we held an activity to talk about respect and made tee shirts. Lastly, we have met with residence halls and helped to create a better sense of community. Overall, this semester has been a starting point to develop a greater sense of community on this campus."

Ghannad: "We are here to facilitate dialogue about topics that may not have been openly talked about previously. The Ambassadors are here to create a change, cultivate respect and inclusivity among the campus community. Our goal is to educate the campus in order to create a space where everyone can be expressed and heard in a non-judgmental fashion."

How has being apart of the OIA Ambassadors influenced you?

Brewer: "It has allowed me to be a part of conversations that involve sensitive topics. It has taught me how to be an active listener as well as how to appreciate everyone's story. It has prepared me to continue these conversations in any setting and has given me the knowledge to ask the type of questions that make people think."

How can other Scotties get involved with the Ambassadors program?

Duncan: "Scotties can get involved with the OIA Ambassadors with an application process that involves an interview. The application process is not long, and it allows you to be creative with your essay response. I wrote a poem for my essay response, and the experience was much more satisfying than writing in the form of an essay. Applications will be available in March and interviews will take place in April. If students don't want to be ambassadors, they can always use an ambassador to help lead a discussion, conduct a program, or to mediate a situation."

An OIA Ambassador Scottie is a woman who wants to actively engage with social justice and wants to make a change. However, before an ambassador can bring about positive changes they must be willing to take a step back and examine themselves and challenge their own prejudices. "~ Patino

Best Buddies

The Mission: To enhance the lives of people with different abilities by providing opportunities for one-to-one friendship and integrated employment.

Activities: Buddies participate in one-on-one activities and group activities such as bowling, movie outings, holiday parties, service projects at the zoo, trips to the aquarium, and many other fun activities.

Members: Danielle Adamson, Michelle Autrey, Rose Brannen, Brittany Bromfield, Katy Chamberlain, Rosa Contreras, Brittany Fowler, Stephanie Hall, Kelly Jones, Siobhan Keeve, Kelley Lockman, Shannon McCartha, Hannah Mitchell, Gabrielle Nockelin, Lindsa Prescod, Kirby Rogers, Becky Sotelo, Ambria Turner, Nyomi Washington, and Heather Williams.

Interview Questions (answered by Dani Adamson):

What effect is the organization having on the campus
Not only does Best Buddies offer individuals who are differently abled the opportunity to develop social skills needed in society, but it also attempts to change people's minds and especially their hearts about people that are differently abled both on-campus as well as the community.

How can someone get involved?
At the beginning of each academic year, Agnes Scott holds a student activities fair. At that time, please come by the Best Buddies table and sign-up for the Agnes Scott Best Buddies mailing list. If you miss the fair, you still have the opportunity to become involved in Best Buddies by attending the mandatory organizational meeting.

How would you define a Scottie who participates in Best Buddies?
I believe that a Scottie College Buddy feels a sense of responsibility for not only their campus but their community as well. In addition, this feisty Scottie loves to help others and have fun while making a terrific and life-changing friend in the process.

The Buddies pose in front of the Atlanta Zoo.

Muslim Student Association

The Muslim Student Association works to build awareness in the Agnes Scott community about Islam and Muslims. MSA hopes to bring unity and an understanding about the religion, the people and the political situation of many of the Islamic countries. The association was re-established during the 2000-2001 academic year. MSA has established a prayer room for Muslim students in Winship Hall and a meditation room in the Julia Thompson Smith Chapel. MSA encourages all students to join the club and help its endeavors. For more information, please contact: Mehwish Shaukat.

Latinas Unidas

Susana Martinez (Pres.), 2012

~ What is the club's mission?
"Latinas UNIDAS is an organization focused in the importance of allowing others to become aware of Latin American cultures. We are a sisterhood of dedicated women who have embraced the meaning of being a woman of color, a woman of race, a woman of culture, and a woman of love and Latin beauty."

~ What does it mean to be a Scottie?
"For me a Scottie is someone who discovers their passion, nourishes that passion and remains true to themselves and their passion."

Noelia Sandoval , 2013

~ How has being in the club made a positive difference in your 1st year?
"Latinas UNIDAS has made my WHOLE first year experience a positive one! It has helped me integrate it to the Agnes Scott community smoothly, enabled me to volunteer for many community service activities, offered me many leadership and team building opportunities, and made me feel like I am a part of a family, not just a club."

~ What does it mean to be a Scottie?
"To be a Scottie, for me, is to be a "feisty" learner, an honorable person, and a confident individual."

Asian Women

Asian Women is a collective voice for students interested in promoting awareness of Asian culture and traditions. We are also a supportive base for Asian/Asian-American students. AW represents the voice of the Asian Women in the ASC community, promote Asian culture and traditions by celebrating Asian traditions annually, o[illegible] of which the Lunar New Year. It is our biggest annual event, which has given many our community members to a glimpse of Asia.

What does it mean to be a Scottie?

"Open-minded, respectful, hard-working, bright, and warm-hearted."

Affinity

with Jamila Akpapunam (Affinity Treasurer)

does Affinity appeal to ASC students outside of its target graphic?

ough Affinity was created for students of color, we encourage, welcome, and the inclusiveness of all people. We believe that it is important to break iers and encourage an open dialogue between all people to bring us together as o beings living in the world.

does Affinity differ from other LBTQIA organizations on campus?

ty takes great pride in hosting gripping discussions which bring voice and ility to controversial issues that most people are reluctant to discuss. ugh bring awareness to these issues, we learn important things about elves and others and urge the campus community to continue the ue with others.

does your organization think that it means to be a scottie?

cottie. Affinity values individuality, mutual respect for ourselves and s, safety, encouragement of open and mindful communication between nt perspectives, raising awareness about diversity of sexual tion and gender identity.

re anything about your organization that you would like the ASC nity to know?

goal is to provide a safe space on the campus for those in the ASC unity who may not always feel safe. Affinity was created for the ASC ilies. If you're looking for someone to talk to, hang out with, or share a to, or three...we welcome you!

Witkaze

Witkaze's primary purpose is to assist in the guidance, orientation, and advocacy of all African-American students regardless of their level of participation within the organization. The group accomplishes this through adhering to their four pillars: academic excellence, social and political awareness, community service, and celebration.

Witkaze empowers students of color by providing many outlets for these students to bond. Programs the group has initiated this year to continue to provide empowerment for these students have been bi-weekly study halls the Sisters for Academic Success lecture series, and semi-annual HIV testing.

"A Scottie is a woman who supports her sister through providing a safe space to listen to her express her ideas and beliefs."

How is your organization trying to make a positive change on campus?
"Triota encourages the Agnes Scott community to discover, explore, and embrace feminist principles of equality and social justice. Triota, as an organization, sponsors and participates in events that promote movements for social justice, human rights, and academic inquiry."

How is your organization trying to make a positive change in the community?
"Triota seeks to actively engage the campus community to express feminist voice and ethics through events such as Feminist Open Mic Night, an avenue for feminists from all walks to publicly speak on themes such as women's rights, human rights, patriarchy, gender, sexuality, class, race, ability and disability, etc. Furthermore, Triota partners with the community of Decatur to uphold women via service projects with organizations such as the Global Village School, an acade[illegible] Decatur."

ori Finklea (2010); Kate Rogers (2010); Sydney Tonsfeldt (2011); Alisha Watts (2011); Anna Young (2011); Bhumika Patel (2012); and Molly Saunders (2012)

Eta Sigma Phi is declared to be an Honorary Greek Letter Society of undergraduate students, whose purposes are:

a) To develop and promote interest in classical study among the students of colleges and universities.
b) To promote closer relationships among students who are interested in classical study, including inter-campus relationships.
c) To engage generally in an effort to stimulate interest in classical study, and in the languages, literature, history, and art of ancient Greece and Rome.

List of Activities:
Eta Sigma Phi initiation, Classics Scavenger Hunt, Saturnalia, Homer-A-Thon, and Classics Movie Night

How is your organization affecting change in the Decatur/ Atlanta area?

Eta Sigma Phi is affecting change in the Decatur/Atlanta area in that we are facilitating engagement with, and a greater understanding of, ancient texts and traditions, which serve as a foundation for many modern institutions. By extending our knowledge via such avenues as high school tutoring in Latin, we are cultivating a passion for the Classics -- and, moreover, a passion for learning -- in the minds of the next generation of students. -- Marlie

How is your organization affecting change on our ASC campus?

We are making classics an accessible and non-frightening entity for the community. Our activities are designed so that anybody can join in. No matter their knowledge of the classics, participants still get some exposure to the Ideas (chiton* party, anyone?). Classics tends to be seen as elite, stuck up or pointless. Eta Sigma Phi is changing that view with good movies, activities, laughter, and a lot of cheese.

*Chitons are what the Greeks wore.
-- Arianne

How can other Scotties get involved?

It's so easy to get involved in Eta Sigma Phi! You have to have taken at least 2 classes with a B+ average to be inducted in the organization, but you don't have to do that to participate in our campus-wide activities. We have several events planned for the end of the fall semester and spring semester. Our mission is to make classics accessible to all of the Agnes Scott community and our campus-wide activities are accessible to all. -Elizabeth

How would you define a Eta Sigma Phi Scottie?

An Eta Sigma Phi Scottie thinks deeply, lives honorably, and engages in the challenges of her time whilst maintaining classical grace and integrity. She is a savvy and sophisticated philologist skilled in etymological discourse. -- Jenna

What are some great reasons for a Scottie to get involved with your organization?

"Wanting to know more about science, helping the community, educating the community about Chemistry and getting to know some awesome Scotties are some of the great reasons to get involved with ACS." Emi Watanabe-- Historian

What is your definition of a ACS Scottie?

"An ACS Scottie is someone who is interested in the world and uses the concepts of chemistry to develop this interest." Alanna Coughran-- IPC Rep

How is your club making a difference in the community?

"Within the past year, our club has sought to make a difference in the Atlanta/Decatur community through volunteering with Trees Atlanta and Trick-or-Treating for cans on Halloween. Through these projects, we were able to plant over a hundred trees and collect over two hundred pounds of food." Melissa Winter -- President

How is your club making a difference amongst other Scotties?

"The Agnes Scott chapter of the American Chemical Society works hard to raise awareness in the campus community about academic and career opportunities for women in science. Our organization hosts campus-wide events which offer informative and entertaining lectures, demonstrations, and hands-on activities that bring students' attention to the importance of chemistry in the modern world." Jaynie L. Gaskin-- Vice President

Why did you decide to get involved with ACS?

"I got involved in ACS because I'm a chemistry major, and also because I wanted to be able to hang out with other people who love chemistry too." Sophia Newton-- Secretary

If another Scottie is interested, how can they get involved with the organization?

"We are always open to new Scotties with an interest in chemistry, regardless of major. Just stop by one of our meetings. We welcome you to come share our love for the chemical world around us!" Kara Leverette-- Treasurer

The Fall 2009 and Spring 2010 Athletic Season...

Volleyball

The Scotties put up a brave fight this year, relinquishing their Fall Break for a defeat against Maryville College. Despite a few rough patches, our fearless Scotties ended the season on an awesome note defeating Wesleyan College to close the season with an overall record of 4-16. Good job girls.

Q&A with Kirnel Daniel, Captain

How long have you been playing volleyball?
I have been playing volleyball for four years.
How long have you been captain of the ASC volleyball team?
I have been a captain for one year.
What made you choose Agnes Scott as the place to further your athletic career?
I chose Agnes Scott because I felt I would be able to grow as an athletic in every possible way. I felt the support from everyone in the athletic department even before I committed.
How has sports at Agnes impacted your life?
Sports at Agnes has given my college experience everything I could ever imagine. I am able to form bonds with classmates and teammates. I have a support system outside of my academics and am able to stay active and focused on all I have to do.

What a season for the ASC Soccer team! This year these Scotties worked harder than ever before and succeeded in going the distance. The team won games against some of our rivals such as Spelman, Wesleyan, and LaGrange. With their impressive wins throughout the season the ASC Soccer team advanced to the Great South Athletic Conference Semifinals and ranked third overall. The commitment of these lovely ladies is so inspiring and with Coach Bergin as their guide we can all look forward to some amazing games in the future!

How has playing soccer at Agnes influenced your college experience?

I've learned that there is no insurmountable obstacle that a strong work ethic cannot overcome and that having a little bit of heart is sometimes more important than having more skill or being smarter. When you invest your emotions into a goal, especially as a team, accomplishing that goal is the greatest high.

What are your plans for the future?

Next year, I hope to spend a fifth year here at Agnes Scott, taking some classes th didn't have time for during my first four years and then hopefully go to medical sch the following year.

What is your definition of a Varsity Soccer Scottie?

Soccer is very much a team sport, we work for each other on and off the field. Th team is like a surrogate family. As D3 athletes, we don't receive any scholarships, we play because we love the challenge of the game and we care for our teammates.

~ Caitlin Suilmann ~

What was the highlight of the season according to you?

Our season game against Piedmont! We played so well as a team. Even after we were down a goal, the team never gave up. Everyone worked so hard for each other, and even though we lost, it was such a great game for us as a team.

What are your goals for next year for your team?

I'd like our team to make it to the conference finals, and hopefully even win there. In a more abstract sense, I'd like for the team to continue to have great team dynamics on and off the field. Finally, I don't want anybody to tear their ACL!

What is your definition of a Varsity Soccer Scottie?

A committed student-athlete. A player who plays not for glory or a scholarship, but because she loves the game and takes pride in playing for her school.

What was the highlight of the season according to you?
Beating Spelman twice!
What are your goals for next year for your team?
Winning conference championship!
What is your definition of a Varsity Soccer Scottie?
A Scottie athlete is completely committed to her teammates and the game, already planning and dreaming about next season!

ASC Basketball Team- 2010

This year the ASC Basketball team welcomed some enthusiastic first years (Danielle Copelan, Genefine Sapateh, Arielle Register, and Tiffany Jones) and created a strong well rounded team. They achieved their first win during the Emory Tip-Off Tournament and succeeded in defeating some of our rivals such as: Spelman, Wesleyan, and Salem. This season the ASC Basketball team has strengthened their family connection. And although they are sad to say good-bye to one of their own (Am'asa Baldwin '10), they look forward to bonding with the new Scotties joining their family for the next season. Congratulations on all your hard teamwork ladies!

~ Am'asa Baldwin ~

Am'asa, co-captain

How has playing basketball at Agnes influence your college experience?
Playing basketball has really enhanced my college experience. It has taught me s much about time management, hardwork, and how to work with others. It has also given me confidence and iniative, but most importantly it has given me many great friendships that I will cherish for the rest of my life.

What are your plans for the future?
In the future I am planning on becoming a medical doctor; I am entering a postbacc premed program and then going to medical school. I want to become and obgyn and deliver babies.

What is your definition of a Varsity Basketball Scottie?
My definition of a Scottie basketball player is one who exhibits all the traits on the pyramid of success, its an athlete who will always keep fighting and never get up and most importantly its a person who puts the team first, and herself secon

~ Kimberly Reeves ~

Kimberly, co-captain

What was the highlight of the season according to you?

The best part of this 2009-2010 season were the little things. Everyone on the team is so funny and great to be with. We always had a joke going that carried us through the weeks.

What are your goals for next year for your team?

Our goal is to keep getting better and with so much experience from this past year, I feel that we will have a lot of success in not only conference games but in the many games that we will be playing.

What is your definition of a Varsity Basketball Scottie?

A Varsity Basketball Scottie is a person that gives it her all every single time she is on the court and tries her best not just for herself but for her entire team.

Lacrosse

a new ASC Tradition

words from the Captain...

How has playing Lacrosse at Agnes influence your college experience?

Being a student-athlete at Agnes Scott College has allowed me the opportunity to successfully integrate both my passion for academics and athletics and, altogether, experience the full range of college life.

What are your goals for your team?

Throughout the 2010 season, the Agnes Scott College lacrosse team seeks to represent the fiery and steadfast Scottie spirit by committing ourselves to improving each and every arduous, yet enjoyable, day. We work together with a positive and persistent attitude to excel as a team and use the knowledge and wisdom gained through participation on a collegiate athletic team to become the best possible student-athletes and young women within the Agnes Scott College community.

What is your definition of a Scottie?

A Scottie is a passionate, committed, and loving individual ready to give her heart, soul, and blood for the betterment of the team as a whole.

Captains' Interviews:

Laura Schaeffer '11

Why did you join the softball team?: I love softball. I'm on Agnes Scott's team because I like the fact that I can focus on academics and athletics at the same time.
What does it mean to be a Scottie?: A Scottie does a lot of hard work, has discipline, self motivation, and perseverance.

Avignon Greene '11

What are the strengths of your team? We have learned that playing together is the only way to succeed. Provided we continue to work together and overcome adversity, we should have no problem achieving our goals.
What does it mean to be a Scottie? Being a Scottie means hardwork and commitment. Our team has an incredible sense of pride that motivates me to play for the school as a whole and not just my team.

Skylar Washington '10

Why did you join the softball team? I continue to play softball at Agnes Scott because I believe in what the ASC softball program wants to do and will do whatever I can to help achieve that success.
What does it mean to be a ASC Softball Scottie? ... to have pride and perseverance. Exectations are set but it is the ability to deal with failed expectations that determines character. It is also the ability to rise, meet, and surpass expectations that show growth.

Melanie Ennis '11

What motivates you on the field? Knowing that I can never be satisfied with my ability. I can always be better so I give 100 percent so that in the future I can be much better.
How do you all encourage each other before playing a game? Before playing a game we all stand in a circle and take turns giving inspirational speeches. Also, we all wrote something positive on our lockers about each player to build confidence.

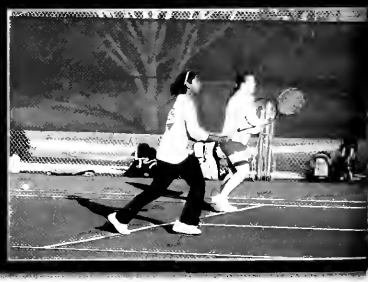
TENNIS

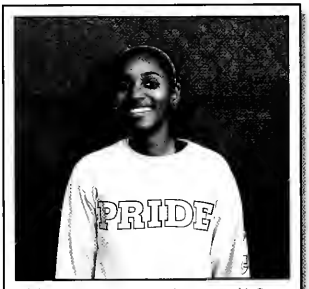
The Agnes Scott College Tennis Team for the 2009-2010 season is a unique and hard-working group of women. Resolved to work together to achieve their goals, their training brings them closer to their collective Championship hopes. Brought together by their love for the game, they are committed to supporting each other every step of the way.

Julie Drinkard '10

What are you looking forward to in the future? "I'm looking forward to taking all that Agnes Scott has taught me: A sense discipline, friendship, a love for academics and really using that in the professional world and making a difference in the world."



What does the tennis team mean to you? "It means having a good support system. Having people I can always talk to and they will understand what I'm going through."



Shamonique Jones '10

Amanda Chaffin '10

Most Memorable Moment: "Going to Virginia on an 8/10hr bus ride, then getting to play; not expecting to win and then winning in the 1st round and then getting to play Emory in the second round!"

Your goals for the team: "To once again become Conference Champions and to also advance further in the Nationals tournament. I also want for us to continue having those amazing moments that have established us as more than just a team but those that have led to us becoming a big family."

Agnes Scott Athletics...

Volleyball

How long have you coached the ASC Volleyball team? 4 years

Are you pleased with this season's outcome? Yes and no. Building a program is a process. I think we made some big steps this season, but it is vital that we continue to build upon that foundation this coming fall in order to be more competitive in our conference.

What do you look for in a potential athlete? good grades...Skill, passion, and coachability

What do you want your athletes to walk away with at the end of their stay at Agnes Scott? I'd like for them to walk away knowing that their blood, sweat, & tears not only helped to build a volleyball program but also helped to build and mold who they are as women...Strong women.

Soccer

Where are you from? I grew up in Cincinnati Ohio, but spent most of my adult life in Los Angeles. I moved to Decatur from LA in 2002.

Where did you go to school? I graduated from Marietta College (Marietta, Ohio) in 1986. I played 10 years of professional soccer before I got into coaching.

What has been one of your highlight moments of the season? The highlight of the season was beating our arch rival Spelman College twice.

What are you looking forward to next year? I am looking forward to getting everyone healthy and seeing just how far this team can go.

How would you describe your Scottie Soccer team? The Scottie Soccer team can be described in thee words; passionate, committed and winners.

Basketball

Where are you from? I'm from Miami Beach

How long have you been a coach? I coach high school basketball for 6 years before n first college position. I was an assistant coach for five years, including 4 at Emory, before becoming the Scotties head coach.

What has been one of your highlight moments of the season? A highlight of the season was beating Salem College by 20 points last week after losing to them i our first game of the season in November.

What are you looking forward to next year? I am looking forward to returning at least 9 players to next year's team, who will have all the experience of a season together.

How would you describe your Scottie Basketball team? The Scottie Basketball team is a talented, committed group with a strong competitive fire.

...Meet the Coaches!

Lacrosse

Where are you from? Originally from Greenwich CT, but I have lived here in Atlanta for 12 years.

Where did you go to school?
I learned to play Lacrosse in High School – The Hotchkiss School (Lakeville CT). I played Division III – St Lawrence University (Canton, NY)

How did you come to be the Lacrosse coach at Agnes?
I was a Program consultant and on the side coaching a Club team for Hotlanta Lacrosse here for a number of years. I decided to quit my job and coach fulltime.

What are you looking forward to here at Agnes? I am looking forward to seeing the rewards of all our hard work. Our goal is to improve every time we step on the field.

Softball

What about ASC drew you here to coach?: When I came to the campus I just got a feeling, I knew it would be a good fit. Everyone was friendly and helpful.

What are your expectations for the upcoming season?: Our goals (I don't like the word expectations) are to win the conference tournament and to improve after each game.

What do you want the school to know about the team?: We're a talented team with a lot of potential. Having support from the campus helps. We feed off energy, more people [at our games] would definitely help us.

What does being a Scottie mean to you and the softball team?: A Scottie is someone who is dedicated, has a lot of pride, and is determined to get what they want.

Tennis

Where are you from?
Noosa, Australia
I came to the US in 1997.

Where did you go to school?
I graduated from Southern Tech in 2000 and went on to receive my Masters of Science from Georgia Tech in 2002.

How did you come to be the tennis coach at Agnes?
I was an assistant coach at Emory from 2002 to 2004. I became the head coach here in 2005.

What are you looking forward to in the upcoming season?
The whole season is going to be good. We have two First Years. The program is growing, and we have a tougher schedule but we have a strong and diverse team that works well together.

We look forward to next season!

Holly and Elaine

On a sunny afternoon in November, the class of 2010 prepared themselves for a Agnes Scott tradition that has lasted for many generations.

Senior Investiture. The seniors marched in their robes from Dana to Presser to hear words of wisdom from Professor Amy Lovell, class of 1990 and department chair for Astronomy/ Physics. In her address to the class of 2010, Dr. Lovell recalled her senior investiture as well as her experiences during her final year at Agnes. Dr. Lovell spoke of serendipity within her own life. She took astronomy as a distributional class which led her to become an astronomy major rather than the music major she had previously planned. Dr. Lovell stated, "Serendipity requires flexibility and an adventurous attitude" and she recommends women such as confident Scotties, take advantage of these special moments

'hat has been the best part of your junior year at ASC?

The influx of amount of activities that I have become involved in, such s: Senate, Programming Board, Strong Sistas, and working with the ustainability office. I really feel like I am proving myself to be more than student now that I am involved in extracurricular activities and this eling makes my time at Agnes Scott more meaningful.

ow would you define a Scottie?

Scottie is a woman who is educated enough to realize that there will be ostacles in front of her. And as a Scottie she has the courage to overcome ne obstacle and engage in conversations as to why is it was there in the first place.

~ Lucia Hulsether ~

What has been the best part of your junior year at ASC?
The best and most stimulating part of my junior year is a tie between working with the wonderful people in the ASC Living Wage Campaign and working with the wonderful people on Student Senate. On the best days the two groups overlapped

And how would you define a Scottie?
A Scottie is someone who continually pushes intellectual and social boundaries for a constructive purpose, even when it means taking a big risk or being unpopular.

What has been the best part of your junior year at ASC?

Avery Glen! Although the walk to campus--for those unlucky enough to have 8am classes-- is quite brisk, the freedom to live with a bunch of your best friends and make your own meals is amazing.

And how would you define a Scottie?

A Scottie is an independent, motivated woman. She finishes her studies during the week-- sometimes with the occasional, necessary all nighter-- and has the freedom to have fun on the weekends!

What has been the best part of your sophomore year?
Being able to make connections with new and old friends. But the best part was going to Ireland this winter for Global Connections.

What is your definition of a Scottie?
Being a scottie for me means I need to set the bar higher then previous classes and accomplish goals beyond the Scottie expectation.

What has been the best part of your sophomore year at Agnes?

The best part of my sophomore year at Agnes Scott has been the feeling of having my feet planted in the community not feeling slightly intimidated when President Kiss says hello, and knowing how to approach your professor when I need help. In short — being able to call Agnes home.

How would you define a Scottie?

I would define a Scottie as a woman who can go anywhere in life she chooses with determination and wit, and does not let prejudices or stereotypes stand in the way of her making a difference in the world.

~ Kenyetta McClain ~

What has been the best part of your sophomore year at Agnes?
The best part of my sophomore year has definitely been the Sophomore Retreat. I got to escape campus for a fun weekend, while also getting help making decisions about my time at Agnes and beyond.

How would you define a Scottie?
I would define a Scottie as someone who is curious, intelligent, fun, and open-minded. A Scottie cares about the world and passionately fights against injustices and ignorance.

/hat has been the best part of your first year at ASC?

he best part of my first year was meeting all these wonderful young omen and beginning my journey to independence. It has been hallenging and hard to cope with sometimes, especially being so far om home, but it will only make me stronger and it's not over yet.

nd how would you define a Scottie?

o me a Scottie is a powerful, educated, beautiful, virtuous, and culturally ware woman.

Nessa, we are so proud of you, way to go - congratulations! You did it! Our prayer for you is that you will continue to work hard, always do your best and that you will achieve your goals; that you will take the time to celebrate your successes and recognize that you deserve to succeed because you work so hard. Expect nothing less from life than what you are willing to accept, and aim high, because you are a queen. Know that the world is your playground and you can make the rules and try all of the rides. You're beautiful, thoughtful, smart, witty and kind. Love who you are, as we do, and know that you are loved! May God continue to bless you and guide your steps. Live life on purpose!

NIKITRIS S. DELOACH

Congratulations Miss Ki!

Wow, your wonderful journey continues! You are still the most extraordinary young woman that I have ever known. Your intellect, confidence, and strength are forces that continue to amaze me in many ways; continue being the persistent young woman that you are; continue being the light that shines on others during their darkest days and continue being that great friend, teacher, leader and God fearing woman that will one day have a legacy that spans the globe. Keep God in all of your dreams and you will continue to be victorious, for He has placed a charge on your life that has enabled you to lead and manifest in the lives of children. I am blessed and proud to say that you are my beautiful daughter and I thank God for you. With this, I am saying congratulations on your continued success and a beautiful life. I am proud of you Nikitris and I love you more than words can express.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that, the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
two roads diverged in a wood, and I --
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

The 2009-2010 Silhouette Staff

Class of Two Thousand Ten

We are Silhouette

... a brief look at staff, specs, and other little things.

Specifications

The 2009- 2010 Agnes Scott College Silhouette was published through Jostens Yearbook Avenue with 160 pages printed.

Fonts used were: Action, Albert, Big Fiction, Tekton, and University Roman. The cover art was conceptualized by the editor-in-chief and developed by Sandra McCarthy of Jostens.

The pictures were taken by staff members, submitted by students and faculty, and cited from other sources. The underclasswomen and senior portraits were taken by Doug Jacksons' company Photographic Arts.

The staff would like to thank Sandra McCarthy, Elizabeth Compton, and Erin Howle for their love and support.

Lastly, the Silhouette is a student produced publication and is not representative of all views of Agnes Scott College or its affiliates.

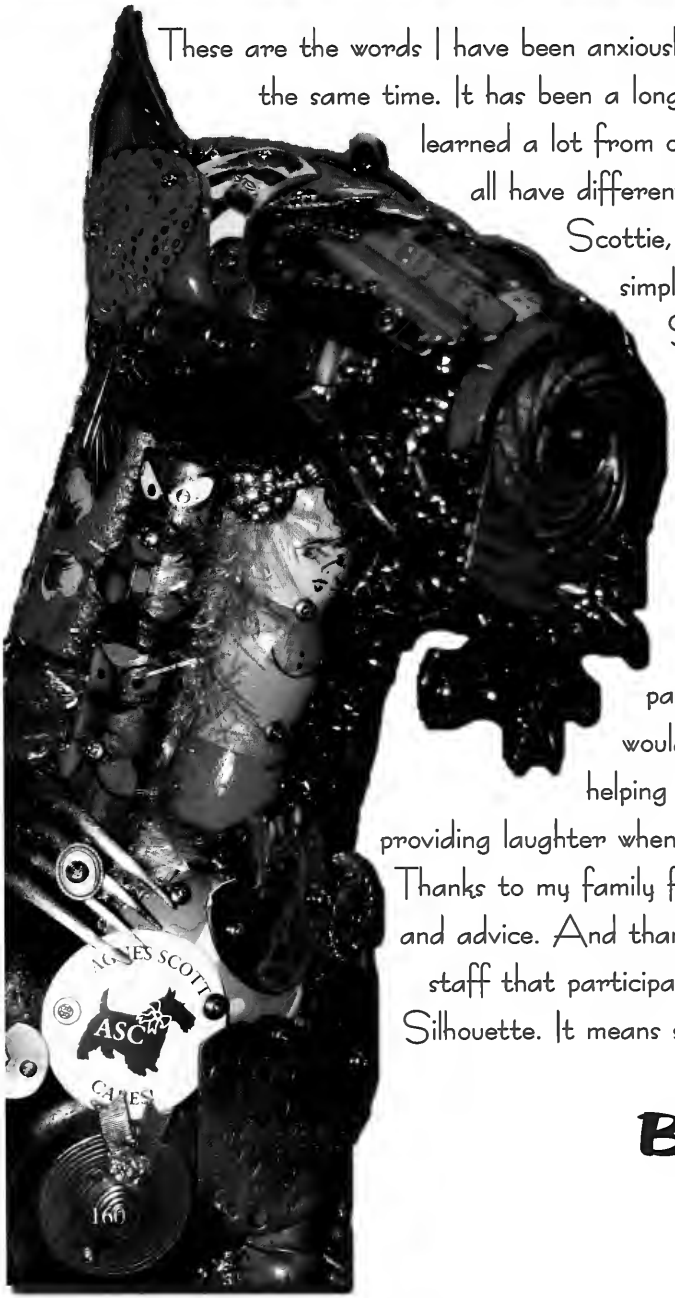
The End... El Final... Fin... Ende...



These are the words I have been anxiously anticipating and yet dreading at the same time. It has been a long journey and in the process I have learned a lot from our Agnes Scott community. We all have different opinions on what it takes to be a Scottie, but the sum of all the responses is simple. It takes a great woman to be a Scottie and I have been blessed by many great women in my life; without them this collection of memories would not be complete. I have so much love for my Silhouette staff. Their dedication and hardwork flows through the pages and I am forever grateful. I would also like to thank my friends for helping me keep things in perspective and providing laughter when I was completely overwhelmed. Thanks to my family for their words of encouragement and advice. And thanks to the students, faculty, and staff that participated in this edition of ASC Silhouette. It means so much!

Much Love,
